

Stellram is a globally integrated technology leader in the development of carbide metal cutting answers for turning, milling, threading, drilling and grooving applications. The company is recognised for powder technology, innovative chip groove design and superior coating technology.

MA Ford is a leading manufacturer of solid carbide tooling for manufacturing companies worldwide. Founded in 1919 as a maker of rotary files, the company has grown steadily and invested heavily in plant and equipment over the last 4 years.

Izar specialises in the production of Precision Cutting Tools offering a full range of Drills, End Mills, Counterbores, Reamers, Taps and Threading Dies, made from premium High Speed Steel, HSS Cobalt and the latest in powder metallurgy.

UFS is an Italian company, with a long family tradition of threading tool construction. UFS offers a range of both standard and special taps, dies and gauges.

Elbo Controlli is a world leader in the manufacture of tool presetting equipment.

D'ANDREA

With a long history of producing high quality boring and facing heads, known as the Sensitive T-TA range, D'Andrea has been busy developing an exciting range of equipment over the last 20 years. D'Andrea products are now globally accepted as being leaders in their field and the company continues to be one of Italy's most active and advanced producers of high precision machine tool accessories.

For more information contact:

Datum on 1800 232 120

